

2017 Haddon Heights Farmers Market Vendor
Application

NEW APPLICANTS: This page is the only form that you need to submit. If your farm business is selected for participation, you will be contacted by Market Admin. There is no guarantee that your application will result in participation at the Market, but will be reviewed and considered.

This form is for vendors wishing to sell items for profit during the May thru October regular season. We must reject any food product that is prepared in a home kitchen. All vendors selling food will be required to get approval and licensing from the Camden County Health Department. Please note having a certified food business does not guarantee your product will be approved for sale in a Market environment by the Health Department.

If asked all Vendors, including Non-Profits must be able to provide HHFM with Proof of Business Liability Insurance.

Payment for new vendors is payable in advance. Fees will be collected on the First Sunday of Each Month.

There is to be no Hawking or Soliciting. All Sales/
Marketing/Educating
MUST be done at the designated Spot assigned

*Set-up is from 8:30 am to 9 am SHARP! ****

You will receive an email by Thursday before the market to confirm your attendance.

Last minute cancellations (within 24 hours) can be made by calling

~~ Fabian Brown at 856-577-7907~~

If he is not available at the time of your call, you must leave a Voice Mail and/or follow up with a text!!
